Principal's Message

Notre Dame Academy, as its name implies, is placed under the benign patronage of our Blessed Lady. For the past thirty-one years of its existence, she has ever been held up as the gracious model, the loving guide and the constant inspiration of each and every student who has come to N. D. to receive an education within its walls.

My dear students of '58, I also present to you Mary, Our Lady, "Notre Dame." As you go forth into your new walks of life, no matter what you do or what you become, keep her and her sterling virtues ever before you as your beacon light, your ideal to follow despite the various difficulties and obstacles that will confront you. Never compromise for the maxims of the world, the true principles of Christianity you have learned here. Keep your eye trained to gaze on the mountaintop where stands "Notre Dame," and keep climbing up and up to the summit—strive continually higher and higher for the only true goal that is worth climbing for.

Let us consider your life of the future as a trip. When you are planning any worthwhile trip, you map out the whole course before setting out, and the more important the trip, the greater the precautions you take. If your journey impels you to travel on a road you have never travelled before, you make yourself familiar with the route of the road. You will make inquiries at travel agencies, consult guide-books, time-tables, road-maps, secure accommodations and make reservations, so that you may arrive safely and surely at your destined point.

But, my dear students, not all the travel agencies, guide books, time-tables, or road-maps in the whole world can help you if you have no idea where you are going. In other words, you must first choose your destination, and then steer straight for that end; otherwise, your trip becomes an aimless drifting to "Nowhere."

Each of you have the fine opportunity of starting out on a long trip, an important trip, almost as important as you going to Heaven; in fact, it is closely linked with your journey to God, and thus, the better you chart your course, and the better you follow your plan, the surer you will be of gaining your heavenly destiny. I mean that each of you is facing the opportunity of a trip into the world of IDEALS—IDEALS you are going to follow through life. Whether those IDEALS will lead you Up or Down depends on your own personal choice.

You are familiar with the little poem that reads:

To every man there openeth
A Way, and Ways, and a Way.
And the High Soul climbs the High Way,
And the Low Soul gropes the Low,
And in between, on the misty flats,
The rest drift to and fro.
But to every man there openeth
A High Way and a Low,
And every man decideth
The Way his Soul shall go.

The thought in this little poem summarizes very aptly my message to you. May each of you make the right decision, and then, with Our Lady as your guide leading the way, may each of you follow in her loving footsteps up, up to the throne of her Divine Son.

Editorial . . .

After a lapse of three years, Notre Dame is publishing its yearbook again and what a memorable year in which to do it! There have been so many events this year that I am sure it will never be forgotten.

On February 11th, the Church celebrates the centenary of the apparition of Our Lady at Lourdes. The Immaculate Conception is one of the most beautiful titles of Our Lady, and to her we have dedicated our book.

This is the year that Canada changed her government from Liberal to Conservative, after 23 years. This is the year, and the first time in Canadian history, that a reigning monarch presided at the opening of parliament.

This is the year that man has achieved the first great step in space travel, one of the greatest advances of our times. Not only has Russia jolted the world with her Sputniks and space dogs, but the Western world has had her measure of success.

This is the year that our wonderful Tiger Cats came right out on top of Eastern football championship. They did not stop there, but went right on for the Grey cup title.

This is also the graduation year for some of us. Our final year in school, after which we are going out to face the world. We will never forget all that has been done for us at Notre Dame; not only the amount of Academic knowledge gained, but the spiritual and moral guidance we have received.

If it happens that through the years we forget some incident which occurred during our high school days, we will always have our yearbook to remind us.

Graduates

LORETTA JACK

Efficient, energetic and hard-working, Loretta makes a fine school president. Helpful, ambitious, and an untiring worker, she is admirably fitted for her position. She plans to be a mortician. Every success Madame President!

Our School

Officers

EUGENIA CATTARUZZA

Beneath her quiet exterior, Eugenia hides a lively and sparkling personality. From Panama she brings her flashing dark eyes and beautiful smile. With both her academic and commercial course, in spite of the language difficulty, Eugenia has a promising future ahead in any field. We wish her luck!

ELIZABETH SCOTT

This lucky girl spends her summers in her second home in the Bahamas. Liz shows fine school spirit, is active in sports and all school activities; she is the enthusiastic chairman of the advertising committee and vice-president of the Student Council. She has a promising future as an airline hostess.

BARBARA ASHCROFT

Outstanding in all scholastic subjects, but not the bookworm type, Barb has found time for many other activities in the Sodality, school dances and the noon cafeteria. We are looking forward to great success for her in the teaching career.

MARGARET DAVIS

A real asset to Notre Dame, Margaret comes from Hamilton. She is well versed in Latin and Shakespeare, and Volleyball. Full of life and enthusiasm, she is a leader in her class scholastically. Her future success as a teacher is assured.

MILDRED CECHE

Her generous and helping hands in both the dining room and library, will make Mildred long remembered at N. D. Always to be counted on in an emergency, she will be true and dependent in whatever field she chooses.

ANNE DuFOUR

Anne is our only mobile graduate (when "Old Faithful" manages to make the school gate!) As a star athlete, Anne shows fine sportsmanship. She plans to be a stenographer.

DIANNE DAVIES

Tall, friendly and pretty, Dianne comes to N. D. from Burlington. She is an active member of the Dramatic Club and Sodality. Adept at creating new hair-do's, she probably will make a fine hairdresser, but her future is in radiology.

JANICE GILMOUR

During her two-year stay at Notre Dame, Janice has endeared herself to all by her contagious smile and her cheerful manner. Her courtesy, willingness, and perseverance combine to make her a graduate of whom we are proud.

LOUISE HAYDEN

Smiling, vivacious and ambitious, Louise came to us from Toronto. Her outstanding talents in Music will certainly place her one day in the Halls of Fame. She plans to be a Music and Language teacher. Good luck, Louise!

SONYA LEWIS

Our petite and enthusiastic editor of Nodaac, has come to Canada from B.W.I. Pretty, pleasant, and an untiring worker in the Dramatic Club, and in the Commercial Department, she has warmed the hearts of her many Canadian friends. Her future points to a secretary's position in an office.

JUDITH HUDECKI

Friendly, and popular, Judy is another Hamilton girl at N. D. A. A graceful dancer, an expert at oral answers in class and a reliable waitress in the cafeteria, are things for which we will long remember her. Her future is still undecided.

MAUREEN MCGUIRE

A good all-round student, Maureen is a star in the academic field. Her quiet gentle manner makes her a respected and admirable graduate. Teaching lies in the future for her, and we know she will do a fine job.

MARGARET LEES

Shy, sweet with smiling dark eyes, Marg came to N.D. from the lost wilds of B.C. With her pleasing and sympathetic personality, she will no doubt make a fine nurse.

PATRICIA QUINN

From the northern town of Lively, Pat came to N.D. A leader in her class, an ardent Sodalist, a faithful contributor to the school paper, and an active participant in all school activities, Pat should be successful as a future M.D. in the Mission Fields.

SUZANNE ST. LOUIS

Reserved and ladylike, Suzanne originally hails from the East. Singing, French and Dieting are her favourite pastimes. She is planning a Nursing career after graduation. She will certainly be a credit to the honourable profession.

LORETTA SWEENEY

Loretta, our Irish lassie, with her clear blue eyes and long brown hair, claims Hamilton as her home. With ready wit, her good sense of humour and her skill in asking the unanswerable question, she has given her classmates many good laughs. Her future is undecided.

MARY SHULTIS

Active, enthusiastic and happy-go-lucky, Mary is a transfer from Westdale. An accomplished piano player, an ardent "Tiger Cat" fan and a lover of all kinds of pets, she shows a very versatile future.

MARGARET TOTTON

Tall, poised and serene, Margaret will make a fine Librarian. She is a fine actress and artist and we know she will go far with these talents.

PATRICIA STONE

Pat's quiet and gracious attitude has made her a respected and admired graduate of N.D. A good student and a co-operative worker, she is an active member of the Dramatic Club.

JOANNE ZAMPROGNA

The song bird of Grade XII, Joanne is sociable and likeable. Her fine qualities can best be stated as enthusiastic, intelligent and unassuming. Teaching lies ahead.

The 1958 basketball season opened with an exhibition game against Waterdown High. They Wanted Light On The Subject...And They Got It!

It was people with inquisitiveness and a sense of experiment in the early, struggling days of Hamilton that brought the first lighting to homes and factories.

In a little cottage on Main Street, a family that had been engaged in the work in England, produced the first sulphur match in 1830.

Then the first use of natural gas as an illuminant in Canada was in the Old Mill at Mount Albion, on the eastern part of the mountain.

The Young brothers of Hamilton took a role in it, too, by following up with the use of petroleum in the shape of a burner for the family lamp — something quite new for Canadians.

Famous in this line was Charles Willson, a chemist of York Street, who discovered acetylene gas — one of the more remarkable individual achievements in the growing town. Willson had a small room over a blacksmith shop and liked to try his talent in experiments.

THROUGH EXPERIMENT AND ORGANIZATION THE GREAT INDUSTRIAL TRIUMPHS OF HAMILTON HAVE MADE ITS NAME FAMOUS . . . WITH IT HAS GROWN THE HAMILTON SPECTATOR, NOW MORE THAN 110 YEARS OLD, AND AT A CIRCULATION FIGURE OF OVER 100,000 COPIES EVERY DAY.

EATON'S OF CANADA

...vast, exciting, vigorous, like Canada itself

You'll find Eaton's at the Pacific coast where gardens are gorgeous and forests are fabulous. You'll find Eaton's in Newfoundland where Atlantic icebergs loom on the skyline and the land is rich with iron. Eaton's is here, there and everywhere, across Canada from ocean to ocean—on the French-speaking banks of the St. Lawrence; in the big cities; in the market towns and mining towns; alongside the wheatfields and oilfields; on the fringe of the prairies and the foothills of the Rockies.

EATON'S is the largest department store organization in the British Commonwealth: Department Stores; Mail Order Centres with Catalogue circulation in the millions; Order Offices; Factories . . . Eaton's is as Canadian as its 85% bought-in-Canada merchandise; as cosmopolitan as the famous products of other lands imported through buying offices in the British Isles, France, West Germany, and the U.S.A. . . . Like Canada, Eaton's dates back to mid-Victorian days—founded in Toronto 1869, by the grandfather of the present Head of the Company.
